PIERIAN

1952

HERE is your very own Pierian. A Pierian that our staff hopes will be an accurate record of our last unforgettable year in Richmond High School. If you can look back in a few years and recall the studies, the sports, and the dances that made school so wonderful, then we shall be rewarded in all our efforts to make this Pierian a real reflection of R. H. S.

Richmond Senior High School of Richmond, Indiana

McGUIRE MEMORIAL HALL

In Memoriam

As a final tribute to Mrs. Ella Bond Johnston, we of the Pierian Staff dedicate our year book to the memory of her untiring service and devotion for Richmond High School.

Mrs. Johnston not only supervised our Art Gallery, but she aroused in every student with whom she came in contact an appreciation for fine art.

Her loyal devotion to our school will be remembered and sincerely missed by all who knew her.

In the Beginning . . . .

Office Staff

Mrs. Logue and Mrs. Davenport . . . Our makers of schedules . . . Smoothers of wrinkles . . . The friendly people with the answers.

Principal

MR. JAMES C. FARMER

The man who holds the reins; the one who makes the decisions; the little man with the big heart; are all descriptions of our Mr. Farmer.

Deans

MR. DONALD C. MANLOVE

Vice-Principal and Dean of Boys

The possessor of an outstanding sense of humor and a pleasant, yet commanding personality. He readily has become a welcome figure of R. H. S. He's the man who knows you, you, and YOU.

MISS GLADYS B. ERDAHL

Dean of Girls

Dispenser of prescriptions for a better way . . . the handler of extracurricular activities . . . the one who can add forty more days to each calendar month . . . the latcher of our own particular wagon to a brighter star.

Activities Board

The place where we learn to govern ourselves through the democratic process of elected students.

Third Row: Mary Alma Jones, Charles Robertson, Marcia Roemer, Roland Cutter, Dale Steele, Miss Gladys Erdahl.

Fourth Row: Fred Cooper, Lewis Allen, Norman Aikan, Frank Deardorff, Jane Schemberger, Kathryn Coulter, Jerry Soper, Jim Delameter, Bill Rodal, Hilton Young, Jay Law, Marie Kettleforder, Jim McPherson, Beverly Gabbard, John Ashman, Jay Thomas, Bob Mills, Jim Carver, Dick Milligan, Don Crabtree, Johnny Kurts, Keith Watt.

Pep for a purpose . . . and the yells tell . . . Zest at its best in song and noise . . .

Block "R"

To all the fellows and gals who aren't in Block R . . . this is one of their practice sessions where all are alert while they learn new yells and songs. Wake up Miss Mercurio! Pay attention like the rest of the group!

Our four cheerleaders who did a fine job in bringing out the best in our yells . . . Tom Bredwell has not as yet thawed from the B-r-r-r-r-Marion football game!

Fall Semester Register Staff — One of the few times this class was ever in the room!

Cram it down — Talk it up!

Typical Gym Class — Hey, Fellows! Girls got credit for this!

Song birds of the morning settling their feathers before taking off on a cruise with Mr. Melton.

Two Janes with a load of puff stuff.

Hey, Meredith . . . Check that!

Hill Billie Elias doing a little Dosie-Do with Jean!

Hey, Joe! Got a problem? Take it to the Activities Board, and they'll straighten out your problem.

Mardi Gras

These girls are making something? Just don't know what, but the booth turned out to be very plush musical chair.

Come to the Mardi Gras! We did, too . . . How could we forget those hilarious "Football Follies" . . . the deliciously sticky candied apples or the eerie blackness of the ghost walk. The color and novelty of this occasion helped to make it one of the year's best remembered events.

Remember the Mardi Gras with a picture in a minute went over big this year . . . until Jim Wertenberger put the booth out of business temporarily by blowing a fuse with all of his lights and camera junk.

Up goes the prize winning booth that sold good old cider, doughnuts, and stuff. As a side-line they sold coon-dogs in the rear. Any resemblance to the coon-dog in 315 is purely coincidental?

Mr. Small's fan club #849.

Girls become horses; or . . . the Pony Tail!

And they're off and running at Santa Anita.

HIKE!!

Studying? Not good etiquette!

Inside dope on dirty politics.

Knit one—Purl two, Little key—Where are you?

Putting a point across (?).

Camera Casualties

Kick off to the bruise season.

So! This is Mrs. Hodgin's true ambition!

Are you sure that's the right question?

Consider this a friendly interview with Oscar!

Mars! Mars! R.H.S. calling!

RICHMOND Wins Its First N.C.C. Football Championship

After having received the much coveted North Central Conference Championship Trophy from the conference representative, Mr. Farmer relays it to Mr. Elias. Their smiles reflect the feelings of us all—

Passing in Review! Awards being presented team members by Coach Elias at a formal dinner of tribute to those champs.

Pal-Item Photo

Chief for Richmond's schools . . . A full time job done by an affable administrator with his eyes set on ever higher goals for us all.

School Board

Our worthy School Board deserves recognition for their invaluable service to the community. A good school board is the best foundation for education in the American way.

It is through the keen business ability and the progressive ideas of the Superintendent and the School Board that our school system has reached its present high standards. These citizens have labored to provide all of our schools with improved means toward a better physical and mental approach to the problems of life.

Standing: Martha Clark, Clifford Keefer, Charles Matthews, Dudley Johnson, Glenn Holder, Mary Elizabeth Fihe.

Honest, Jenkins, I didn't hit you!

MISS HELEN HICKS

These lines are written in final tribute to a woman who played a large part in making our school what it is. Miss Hicks was more than a teacher, she was a friend, confidant, and advisor. Her death left a vacancy that will never be completely filled.

Standing: Clarence Chase, Arthur Beckner, Palmer Sponsler, Lowell Stafford, Edward Loar, Ronald Melton, Richard Coons, Gerald Bartz.

Standing: Otto Dorner, Ray Treasure, Robert Lindsey, Albert Sears, Hubert Etchison, Robert Sollars, Paul Robertson.

Cafeteria Staff

Remember those tummy-tempting dishes, cherry cobbler, wimpies, and Washington cream pie? For all these, our thanks to Mrs. Hyne and her capable cafeteria staff.

Rachel, sit up and eat like a big girl.

Custodians

This is the group to whom we owe all our thanks for having kept our school beautiful and clean. Without their constant efforts and friendly interest in all students, R.H.S. would not be the same.

STAMPEDE!

Concession

Oasis for the thirsty and hungry . . . Quick service by an efficient crew under that master of versatile jobs and reliever of your spectator fatigue, "Doc" Robertson.

Y-Teens

Mary's Little Lambs

This group, led by Mary Linn, had a gay time this year, especially at the Mardi Gras. These hillbillies had quite a "unique" booth covered with dirty old rags, but they walked away with the prize. They also made quite a haul on cider and "coon dogs in the rear."

Bobby's Bob-O-Links

Barbara Foxworthy's group has done quite a bit this year with service projects, picnics, and parties. This group will be long remembered for their lively Musical Chair at the Mardi Gras.

Janteens

Big pictures, little pictures, any kind of pictures were their main interests. Led by Janice Liford, they really had a popular Mardi Gras booth. This sharp bunch of gals also offered a style show as a further project.

Sizzling Satans

Besides selling pictures of the football and basketball teams, Rhoda Whittymore's aggregation of industrious females combined with several other groups for a flower show. They are leaving a Christian flag to the school as a project for the year.

Margie's Merrymen

This group really makes delicious waffles. Just ask anyone who went to the Mardi Gras! They also enjoyed a girl-invite party at the "Y." From all reports, it was a great success.

Judi-ettes

Under the capable leadership of Judi Emslie, these gals made a huge success of their Freak Show at the Mardi Gras. Besides a congregation of horrible freaks, they provided a treat for the taste with gooey candied apples.

Brown's Clowns

Nancy Brown's group had several super programs this year. Of course, some of the best ones were panels . . . ahem! At the Mardi Gras, they had a real neat baseball throw, complete with a huge clown face.

Dandy Devils

The Dandy Devils had a peppy year. They took honors at the Mardi Gras with their originally decorated candy shop. Since then they have tried to lend a helpful hand in many school activities and projects. They'll never forget the "scads" of books and magazines they collected for Easthaven.

Peppy Pranksters

Elsa's group has a record to be envied. They acted as the Y-Teen reporters of R.H.S. and printed everything in the "Pranksters Prattle." Besides this they sent clothes to Europe. They are most proud of the fact that they donated a new school flag to the school.

King's Queens

Fortune Telling at the Mardi Gras . . . favors for patients at Smith Esteb for Christmas . . . a wonderful picnic at the Y.W.C.A. . . . Clothes to an orphanage in Germany . . . all made the girls in Jewell King's Y-Teen Group glad that they were members.

Ginny's Gems

Meet the group often heard in Civic Hall on Wednesday mornings. They acted as messengers at the Mardi Gras, and, as messengers of mercy, they sent a Christmas basket to a needy family at Yuletide. Miss Stinson was their able sponsor.

Dizzy Debs

Everyone was welcome to the House of Horrors sponsored by Jane Lawler's Y-Teen group at the Mardi Gras. They sent clothes to Korea as a service project this year. They also had lots and lots of fun at a Slumber Party at the home of Louise Lawler.

Football

Hit 'em hard, hit 'em fast, and hit 'em low, and if they get up, hit 'em again. This is the motto by which our boys played. In the first three games our team never lost the ball without scoring. This meant that the Devils never had to punt the ball until the fourth game. All in all they scored three hundred and nineteen points to their opponents twenty-eight. Three of our boys, Bob Goldenberg, Jim Peters, and Dick Murley, were on the all state team; Lamar Lundy, Bob Ladd, Dale Steele, Bob Barrett, and Tom Fletcher, were on the all-conference team. Our own Jim Peters led the state in scoring with a total of one hundred and fifty-one points. This netted us a conference title and a claim to the mythical state championship. The perfect ending was the celebration after the Marion game. Despite the snow, wind, and ice, all Richmond turned out at Silverpoint to hail the conquering heroes . . . our own . . . Richmond Red Devils of 1952!

Touchdown!!

Why did Richmond win? Richmond really had 36 men playing all at once, whether they were on the bench for a short rest or on the field running for a touchdown. Every boy was out to win!

This year Richmond didn't necessarily need any chalk talks. It was the other team that needed to figure out the maneuvers of the Richmond running "eleven."

"B" Team

Here are the fellows who had a mighty hand in making this year's football success an unblemished monument of twenty-four carat gold. In each and everyone there was pride in personal achievement for having helped polish and finish the more celebrated teammates on the varsity. Coach Bartz will attest to the fact that they did a superior job. Head coach Elias looks upon them with great respect and the warmth of understanding that comes with the knowledge that their contribution was so necessary to a smooth-running organization. As students, we are often amiss in failing to give them just rewards of applause for their efforts. For every bruise they carried and for every blackeye you saw, you can bet the first team was made better for them. Those touchdowns that were run up throughout the season were the result of planning, work, fortitude, and strength of purpose combined with unselfish cooperation. These are the fellows who shared in that great team spirit. Among this group are first-stringers for games in the future. It is into this reservoir of talent and good citizenship that Coach Elias will find keymen for tomorrow. The class of '52 pays them tribute.

Basketball

The Red Devils, guided by our new coach, Arthur Beckner, made an early swing into the success column with a win over Liberty. Fans still speculated over the prospects for the year after a decisive win over Winchester. The "wait and see" attitude was dispelled as the season progressed. Victories over Kokomo and Muncie Central clinched the fact that the 1951-52 season would end with R.H.S. a much discussed team. And so it was! 18 wins and 8 defeats! Wins that surprised many, and defeats that, in some cases, were painful to us; but in the making of these, Coach Beckner was molding a unit that made every player on the bench a potent force. For once, we think, The Traditional Cry—"Wait 'till next year"—will come into its own because of the splendid efforts and display of team spirit that characterized the squad this year.

Track

Before the first spring flower pushed its way through the turf of the athletic field this year, Coach Bartz had his team crunching cinders in anticipation of a good season. Prospects were good for the 1952 sectional meet to be held here. Hopes were somewhat dampened by the untimely hospitalization of Charles Keen, wheelhorse of the R.H.S. trackmen. Spirits rose, however, when we spectators walked by during a couple of practice sessions and saw some records being nudged, if not broken.

Wrestling

From 230 lb. Murley to 125 lb. Brantner, our mat team was good . . . darn good! Just ask Coach Elias about them. With loads of holds and pins that were few and far between, these hard-working boys turned in an enviable season record.

Cross Country

With a schedule including nine meets, our Cross Country team ran for everything including their supper. In sectionals they placed fifth and carried a sixth place from the N.C.C. meet. Chick Keen was their capable captain and set a good standing as the team's high point man.

Tennis

With Ray Jackson, Bob Goldenberg, Dick Stamper, and John Juerling as returning lettermen, the slamming racketeers of R.H.S. expect a highly successful season. Their schedule includes many of the powerhouses of the state. Clarence Chase is the coach.

Golf

Here is our "way above par" '52 golf squad. They have proved their skill in their first match against New Castle. With Ron De Mao returning next year, these "fore" guys have excellent prospects of equaling this season's record. Coaching honors go to Mr. Palmer Sponsler.

Baseball

The baseball record at R.H.S. has been remarkably good and this year's expectations are unusually high. Already the 1952 season is underway with Coach Art Beckner courting and wooing well his springtime fancy. Veterans Peters, Urton, Jarvis, and Maurer supply that impetus in a clutch that makes us all boxscore happy. Our nines have been consistent winners of the N.C.C. championship as the trophies in the case testify.

Which way'd it go? Why, it went that-a-way of course!

Intramural Bowling

Set 'em up in the third alley and down they clatter again to rack up points for our Intramural bowlers. Each Tuesday evening you could find this bunch at the American Bowling Alley.

The way they fought for their team standings was proof enough of their enthusiasm. Credit is due to the teams who ranked first. Yet all who participated had fun—who wouldn't when every strike called for another coke and tenderloin?

Intramural Basketball

Fellows who really have the sincere yen for the game of basketball are given the opportunity in this popular intramural sport. The thump-thump of basketballs is really tougher than it may appear. Believe us, these games can get bloody! This year Don Coulter's team survived the Civic Hall wars to cop the well-earned title.

Man meets Woman!

School is a combination of so many, varying things it is difficult to separate them, difficult to say just what makes R.H.S.

When the three years are over and one has a perspective view of school, he begins to realize that the things he will remember the rest of his life are the things that really count . . . things like the Christmas tree in Social hall, cramming for final tests, loafing in the cafeteria, snowy nights for basketball games, hurried gossip between classes, a boy and a girl holding hands . . . .hundreds of things that have made us what we are. This is school.

The only thing Social Hall lacked during the Christmas Season was a fireplace for Santa. Activities Board must have let the matter slip their minds.

Here are 120 show-stoppers. Their support of the team certainly was responsible for more than one crucial point when the going was hardest. Fans will talk for years to come of their performances between halves, especially the "God Bless America" theme during the past season. The fact our block was imitated so successfully by other schools is proof of their everlasting originality.

Band

Football games! Basketball games! Spring and Fall Concerts! Footlights of '52! All these things that everyone of us enjoyed so much would have been different—less exciting, somehow—without the Concert band. The long hours of practice, the excellent leadership of Ben Graham, all were more than repaid at the climax—public performances.

We of R.H.S. are proud of our band, and proud of our director. Here's a well earned "Thanks" to all of you.

Ever in McGuire Hall during fifth hour? Remember the tuning of the violins, the wail of the trombones, and the clang of the cymbals? This was our orchestra preparing for another long practice. Their untiring efforts were well rewarded at concert time.

FOOTLIGHTS

The sidewalks of New York came to life musically in this year's production of Footlights of '52. From showbusiness to penthouses to rubber-necked tourists, the heart of the big city beat for enthusiastic audiences. It was a record run, five nights. After the last bows were taken and the final curtain went down, there was the satisfaction of a big job well done, and the regret of finality. But the final verdict, "The best show ever," made it all worth while.

More than learning to write and edit copy was gained in journalism class. This enterprising group of guys and gals gained the experiences of learning to work with people under the strain and friction of deadlines, erroneous stories, and clacking typewriters, that will profit them the rest of their lives.

The Register was one of the highlights of Friday at school. You should have heard the complaints if someone didn't get his!!

BLOCK "R" TO SELL SHAKERS, HO

Last Friday Block "R" called a short meeting to plan on how to raise money for the basketball banquet. Two ideas were suggested, making shakers and bake sales. There were enough people interested in each idea to use both of them.

The bake sales were divided into three groups for three different Saturdays. The co-chairmen for the first bake sale, February 16, are Mary Carolyn Gahre and Sally Snyder; for the second, February 23, Marta Rethmayer and Mickey Tollefson are the co-chairmen. Imogene Stanley and Nan Hoch are the co-chairmen for the third sale in March.

Senior Class Plays

The pungent odor of grease paint . . . the coke in the coffee pot . . . those musty costumes . . . that golden laugh from the other side of the footlights—all these made "Arsenic and Old Lace" and "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" vivid memories.

SENIORS

Few will soon forget the Senior class of 1952. We were, without a doubt, one of the busiest and most outstanding graduating classes to leave R. H. S. in many years.

This, our year, was started off by the excellent production of the favorite, "Arsenic and Old Lace." It brought the house down with laughter. November brought snow, football, and our first coveted N. C. C. football championship. Richmond also received the honor of being the only school to have three boys on the all-state team. We had the experience of seeing a great basketball club developed under our new coach Art Beckner. Remember the thrilling games when we won over Muncie and the A.P. state champions, Kokomo? The challenge of the "Footlights of '52" soon was upon us. We came through with a spectacular musical production that R. H. S. will have a very hard time forgetting. A playwright passing through Richmond happened to catch the show one night. Backstage later, he acclaimed it the best high school musical production that he had seen. We considered this quite an honor. The year was also marked with many memorable dances and parties. Among the last events the class of '52 has to remember is our senior class play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay." It won the hearts of each of us. Last but not least is the 1952 Pierian. We really hope you all like it.

To the future Senior classes we leave a great challenge and a great name to live up to. The Senior class of '52 says farewell and Good Luck.

From the expressions on these faces, you can tell we are finished — in more ways than one. It was a long tough pull, but we finally made it. Now that the Pierian is finished, we can look back and mean it when we say, "It was fun!"

Those who helped us on the Fall Staff include Nancy Riley, Susan Harris, Marcia Roemer, Suzanne Williams, Mayme Porter, and Mark Issen.

Before kicking the bucket for this year I would like to give thanks to those who deserve a bushel of orchids for their help and patience. First I would like to thank the Indianapolis Engraving Company and the Nicholson Printing Company for their long hours of very much needed help and efficiency in putting out this book. Thanks must also go to Mr. Charles Hall for taking the pictures that I didn't have time, or was too lazy, to take; also to Mr. Roy Hirshburg for the excellent pictures of the Queens and candidates for the Prom and Queen of Hearts. My sincerest appreciation to Jack Bundy for helping with the cover, Dudley Johnson for sales, the Palladium-Item for basketball shots, and last but not least, to "poor old" Mr. Coons who gained many gray hairs in helping put out his first yearbook. I deeply thank all of you.

I would like to apologize to the people who might have their names spelled wrong. I guess the only way to have them right is to get on the staff next year and make sure they are not misspelled.

Well, before writing my last word I would like to say one more thing——— WHOOPEE!! It's done, see you at Easthaven.

Sincerely,

Jim Wertenberger, Editor-in-Chief

. . . . And So It Was

Vivian!
you have always been a nice kid to know. Always remain
as lively as you are now.

Vivian,
I'll always remember
and cherish your true friendship. You're a sweet and kind girl with lots of personality. We've really had fun this year. Hope we have more next year.
Love Josephine

Vivian,
I don't know whether I shall forgive you for messing up that case in Civics class or not? But since you such a very sweet girl and ~~also~~ such a good friend, I'll forgive
you. Just kidding, Vivian! Best of luck in everything you do!
Mary Carolyn Gabre.
